Secretary

The little Drake mill, valued at some $28,000 and operated a little over a year by the state at a loss of from $17,000 to $32,000 may have to shoulder an additional margin in the red through the receivership into which the Consumers United Stores company has been thrown.

This company according to the statement of the liabilities filed with the court at the time the application of voluntary receivership was filed, still owes the state $16,511 on flour consignments.

Admits Loss
The Industrial commission admits a loss of $17,000 on the Drake mill and declares that it was incurred through the drop in the price of wheat which forced it to suffer a big loss on the flour sold by consignment. Herbert A. Temple of Webb, Temple & Co., accountants, testifying before the house investigation committee, maintained that the loss was over $32,000.

The petition asserts that the assets of the company are $881,000 and the liabilities about $900,000.

W. G. Johnson, secretary of the company, declares that the receivership was requested to protect the rights of all parties concerned. He says the company has $700,000 worth of the notes originally given by the farmers for the certificates.

Owe Bank $100,000
The Consumers Stores company, according to the petition, owes the Scandinavian American bank $100,000.

The action of the company in asking for a receivership was precipitated, says Mr. Johnson by the garnishment of the company's account in a Fargo bank by the Hanson County Farmers bank of Lisbon, a League-controlled organization.

Regarding the move, the Courier-News says:

"The Consumers United Stores company was organized in 1917. It was known as a 'Brinton promotion.' J. W. Brinton, having been a leading spirit in pushing the work. In the beginning the company was not a true co-operative, signers to the capital stock merely purchasing the right to buy at the low prices which it was intended to charge purchasers who held these contracts.

"About two years ago it became necessary to take drastic action to save the company from the disorder in which it was found Mr. Brinton had involved it. H. A. Paddock, counsel for the company, virtually took control, the headquarters were moved to Fargo, and the company became a true co-operative, though only after a long fight with the secretary of state."

SOLDIER TRIO, DESERTERS, IN CUSTODY HEREOne Arrested After Begging
Funds on the Streets of City

Chief of Police Martinson today was awaiting word from the Commanding Officer of Fort Snelling, Minn., that he would send guards to take into custody three deserters from the United States army.

They are Ernest Knoblock, headquarters troops, Fourth division; Parker Crum, Battery C, 78 Field Artillery, and Bertram Watson, Battery C, 16th Field Artillery, according to the names they gave the police.

The soldiers, lacking money, began to beg funds from people on the streets, and it was this that led to their arrest. One of them sought money from Chief Martinson. After talking to him the chief allowed him to go on and watched the soldier join two pals in an alley. All were taken into custody, and after considerable questioning the story of their desertion came out.

The trio had beaten their way on trains from Camp Lewis, they said. A love affair is said to have caused the desertion of one. One of them said he was in jail in Billings, Montana, for two weeks but the police were unable to get anything out of him and let him go.

"Petrograd is just as impregnable against a counter-revolutionary coup d'etat as it is to the Kronstadt fortress," Trotsky declared.

"Liquidation of the uprising had been dragged out because we wished to avoid severe losses not only to our troops but to the insurrectionists in the Kronstadt garrison. Up to the present our losses have been insignificant."

Denial that any representative of the Chicago financial house from whom the Bank of North Dakota had made a loan of $1,000,000 had been in Bismarck in connection with the loan was made today by bank officials. No word of any kind was received from the Chicago house, they said, because the loan was paid when due. It had been stated in the Tribune that it was understood a representative of the Chicago house has been in the city conferring with officials of the bank. A check for $3,095.24 was given to the Publishers National Service Bureau yesterday, representing the first payment of the advertisements the Industrial Commission is carrying in many papers throughout the state. The voucher stated that there were 51 insertions of the advertisements, some being made more than once in a paper.

MANY WRITE
OF PROPOSED
CAPITOL PARKLeading Articles in National Magazines Praise Liberty
Memorial Plan

The proposed memorial historical park at the state capital which is assured of completion now by the appropriation made by the last legislature is attracting wide attention.

One of the leading articles in the last number of landscape architecture, a quarterly magazine published by the American Society of Landscape Architects, is an interesting article by William Hay Williamson on "Recording History in Landscape."

Unusual Designing.
The new state capital grounds at Bismarck, N. D. are being designed in an unusual way," declares Mr. Williamson, "which may well be stimulating in similar work in the future."

Where the usual state capital plan is a reflection of the current fashion with perhaps an occasional statue as a reminder of past nation builders, these grounds will be entirely a tribute to ancestry and history, in which every element will be American and Dakotan.

He then continues with a detailed description of the plan. The architect's drawing of the general plan is also reproduced in an insert.

Theme of Article.
This article and the prominence given it in the magazine is considered an unusual honor because the art of landscape architecture is not generally considered to have reached as high a stage of development in the west as it has in the east.

Museum work, the official magazine of the American Association of Museums, for February also made the proposed park one of its features.

Dr. Melvin R. Gilmore, curator of the North Dakota Historical Society and creator of the park, has an article himself on the project. The architect's drawing is also printed in an insert.

Dr. Gilmore tells how a park of this nature has always been a dream of his and then, continuing, gives a vivid picture of what the park will be when completed.

Newspaper Man Says He Be-

Money

Ardmore, Okla., March 16.—Introduction of testimony in the trial of Clara Smith Hamon for the murder of Col. Jake L. Hamon, Republican national committeeman of Oklahoma, and millionaire oil and railroad magnate, ended at 10:23 o'clock this morning and court was recessed until 3 p. m. to permit Judge Thomas W. Champion to prepare his instructions to the jury.

Each side was allotted five hours for argument and it was said that if the court had prepared his charge by the time court reconvened they will be gotten under way immediately.

The court will charge the jury on three points: murder, which upon conviction, would carry a sentence of life imprisonment or death; first degree manslaughter; the sentence for which would be from four years to life imprisonment; and second degree manslaughter.

F. P. Freeling, states attorney-general in charge of prosecutions, said that H. H. Brown, special prosecutor would make the opening argument and that he would close for the state.

W. P. McLean, of Fort Worth, Texas, leading counsel for the defense, announced three of the defense corps of six attorneys would speak.

Mr. McLean said that the defense had submitted a proposal to the state counsel to permit the case to go to the jury immediately after the judge read his charge but that the state had declined.

Throws Out Evidence
The court before the end of the testimony, ruled inadmissible as evidence a number of letters Col. Hamon had written to the defendant. The defense had its exception noted and formally rested.

The state began presentation of its rebuttal testimony by introducing Sam Blair, a newspaper man, who obtained an interview with Clara Hamon at Chihuahua City, Mexico.

He said he saw Clara Hamon first on the night of December 18, 1920 and saw her twice later.

Thinks There Is a Will
Asked regarding any statement the defendant may have made regarding a will left by Hamon, Blair said he brought up the subject and he believed there was a will and it was being kept hidden until after she might be tried.

Erwin C. Daniels, a Denison, Tex., service car driver, said he had driven Clara from Denison to Dallas and that on the trip he had seen a pistol in the defendant's handbag.

The spectators laughed when Daniels replied: "Did you ever see a taxi driver who wasn't?" when Mr. McLean, on cross examination, asked him if he were not always in a receptive mood when a passenger offered a larger fare than the regular amount.

He brought another laugh when, in describing the man who had him come to testify, he referred to a "muscle" (Continued on page 3)

Left Employ

Heaton left the employ of the bank in January, 1921, when a check revealed a shortage of about $70,000 of funds of the bank said today. This shortage was not made public at the time.

Heaton had been in the employ of the bank about six years, mostly as teller.

Heaton today declared that he was innocent of the charge of embezzlement.

Frank C. Heaton, who was arrested on charges of embezzlement in Scandinavian-American bank, Fargo has exonerated anyone else connected with bank according to O. E. Lofthus, states examiner.

Heaton, Mr. Lofthus said, confessed to defalcation, assuming sole responsibility himself.

The method used by Heaton Mr. Lofthus said, was to tear pages out of the loose-leaf register in the savings department where he was teller. The defalcation was first discovered by one of the bank officers and an investigation started the examiner said.

Tried to Make Good

After the shortage was discovered and Heaton confessed, the examiner said, Heaton attempted to make good. He signed over property estimated to be worth $16,000 and he was given a little time in an effort to try to get the balance and to make up the shortage. He was turning to do so.

The shortage discovered a short time before bank closed, Mr. Lofthus said, and Heaton tried to make it up. When he failed the bank closed its doors.

Has Not Full Report

Mr. Lofthus said that he had not had full report from receiver Reep and therefore was unable to make complete statement of case.

He said that Heaton had denied that he speculated with money saying he simply spent it. Officers of bank are unable to find any speculations so far. Mr. Lofthus said he had no report that the shortage was completely checked up. He thought it might go beyond $70,000 or $80,000 but didn't think it would reach a hundred thousand.

When the examiners found that Heaton was short they asked him how it could have been discovered and he is said to have declared that "no one could discover it." It was only due to the fact that there was a slight error in figures that led to the checking up and discovery of the shortage, it is said.

L. C. Reep, receiver of the bank, said that Heaton had been found $73,000 short by two examiners of the state examiners office several weeks ago and that Heaton had signed a statement attesting to the correctness of a report covering the shortage submitted by these examiners.

It had been stated in the Tribune last week that it was understood a representative of the bank was in the city. However, the loan was repaid without any communication with the bank whatever, it was said, the loan simply being paid on the day it was due.

HAZEL MINER
GAVE UP LIFE
YEAR AGO TODAYNorth Dakota's Worst Storm in 22 Years Took Heavy Toll of Deaths

Hazel Miner, the heroic daughter of W. E. Miner of Center, a year ago last night lost her life when she offered it in sacrifice to save her little brother and sister battling against North Dakota's worst storm since 1888-89.

The barometer at Bismarck fell to its lowest point, 28.66, in the history of the weather bureau and the wind whirled at a velocity of from 40 to 64 miles an hour.

Mr. Miner, becoming alarmed at the storm, rode to the schoolhouse in the afternoon. He hitched the horses for the children and instructed them to wait until he got his saddle horse. In the blinding storm they were unable to get in touch with each other again and it was not until the next day in the afternoon that the rig was found, overturned midway between the schoolhouse and the Miner home. Emmet, 11 years old, and Meredith, 8 years old, although they had been exposed to the frigid blasts for 24 hours, were unharmed. Hazel Miner had wrapped them in every blanket she could find and besides had taken off her warm wraps and thrown them over her two little brothers.

Son Fully Exhausted
A son of Gust Wohlske, near Ryder, lost his life while taking up the trail the exhausted horses had given up. He had fallen, completely tired out, within a few rods of his home. Mrs. Andrew Whitehead, Indian was frozen to death near Devils Lake.

Minnesota Man's Troubles Disappear After Taking Tanlac
And He Now Feels Fine—Suffered Five Years

"I am now enjoying good health for the first time in years and I owe it all to Tanlac," said Emil Gilbertson, of Cottonwood, Minn.

"For nearly five years I was a sufferer from nervous indigestion. After meals I bloated up terribly with gas that pressed around my heart and hurt so I could hardly stand it. At night I was so nervous and racked with pain, and so choked up I couldn't sleep. My kidneys bothered me constantly and I was so weak and run-down it was hard for me to do my work."

"But all these troubles are things of the past now. For Tanlac has brought my appetite back, got my stomach and kidneys in fine condition and built me up in every way and, in fact, has made a clean sweep of all my ailments. I just feel fine all the time now, and can do as good a day's work as anybody. People are foolish to suffer when they can get Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Bismarck by J. S. Breslow, in Driscoll by N. D. and J. H. Barrett, in Wing by H. P. Homan, in Strasburg by Strasburg Drug Co.

Specifications of the three floors will be sent to each team, and to the state board of control for their approval. Minor plans to make the tournament the most successful ever held. HAMON MURDER CASE
EVIDENCE ALL SUBMITTED

tacle as a "he had them little things under his nose."

Speaking in a low pitched dramatic tone Clara Hamon brooked no interference from her counsel until she had told the jury her story of the occurrences of the day and night of November 21, last, culminating in the firing into Hamon's body of the fatal bullet from a tiny automatic pistol she said she held in her right hand during her long period on the witness stand. "It went off as it fell, or I pulled the trigger, or something, as he hit me," she said in explaining the firing of the pistol as the climax to a mad fight she had waged with the man with whom she had lived eight or nine years. She said that he hit her with a chair after he had choked, beaten, kicked and otherwise mistreated her, but as to how the actual shooting came about she said she did not know. "I don't know," she said. "The gun went off."

Broke Into Tears
Three times during her narrative the defendant broke into tears and wept silently into her handkerchief, once coming to the verge of complete prostration.

Her first came to her eyes as she spoke of the inception of the fight. Clara Hamon, she said, having snatched her into a chair, laid him in front of the hotel where they lived, cursed her and accused her of having been in a rooming house with some one.

At the word "rooming house" she claimed when she shot him, a young woman came nearest to a breakdown. She said that Colonel her and that she "had waited six years for that to be done."

A contract bearing the signatures of Clara Hamon and Jake L. Hamon was read into the records. It set forth that the two had entered an agreement whereby Clara Hamon was to receive $35 a week as an employee of the colonel, subject to termination upon two weeks' notice, and that should a child be born to them, $35 a week should be set aside for the child during its lifetime, that Colonel Hamon agreed to acknowledge it as legal issue and that upon the colonel's death the child should share in his estate.

Only a short time before Clara Hamon went to the witness stand she had been led from the court room under a condition of complete silence, while deputy sheriffs and bailiffs ineffectually sought to clear the court room of spectators.

BACKACHE OF WOMEN

The back is often called the misprising of a woman's life. What can she do, where can she go, so long as that deadly backache saps every particle of her strength and ambition? She cannot walk, she cannot stand, her household work is a burden, or the long hours behind the counter, in the office or factory are crushing. She is miserable. The cause is many times some derangement of her system, and backache is a common symptom. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a reliable remedy for backache, as for more than forty years it has been relieving women of America from the ailments which often cause it.

FEDERAL FARM

$75,000,000 Bonds to Go on the Market in Short Time

Washington, March 16.—A new issue of farm loan bonds of approximately $75,000,000 will probably be offered for subscription in the next few days, treasury officials said today.

Issuance of new bonds, Commissioner Ladd said at the time of the supreme court decision on February 2, upholding the legality of the federal farm loan act, would be made as soon as possible, but he intimated that it would be at least 30 days before the funds would be available for actual loaning.

"In the present money market the bond rate will have to be advanced to five percent," he said. "The interest rate to the borrowers will have to be correspondingly advanced to six percent."

"The farm loan board is hopeful that the market may also be farm loan bonds issued to the borrowing demands of the farmers of the country but no one can predict with safety the result of a financial operation of this magnitude."

New York, Mar. 16.—A movement was launched to establish a perpetual memorial in honor of Woodrow Wilson, the man who projected the league of nations idea into the world.

Bird Film Artist.

New York has a bird which has started on a successful film screen career. He is a cockatoo called Coron. His beautiful white feathers attracted the attention of the director of a large film company, and now he has a job appearing in all scenery where birds are needed. He gets a good salary.

Bee-Hunting Profitable Business.

In the swamps of Florida the hunting of "bee trees" is a profitable business. Record of wild honey deposits of more than 200 pounds in hollow trees has been noted. The trees are located by hunters who follow the flight of the bees. It requires keen eyesight and a compass.

TRIBUNE WANTS—FOR RESULTS

SEED BED PREPARATION.

The firm seed bed required by wheat is automatically provided if a two-year crop rotation is used. All the spring preparation required on a nicely cultivated crop of corn, potatoes or grain in rows or a well-kept fallow is sufficient to mellow, harrowing or cultivation to mellow and warm the surface and provide enough loose soil to properly cover the seed.

If the four-year rotation (corn, oats, wheat, clover or something similar) is used, it is important to grow early oats which can be removed early so that early fall plowing may begin in late July or August.

It is important to get the plowing done as soon after harvest as possible. Early fall plowing will usually have settled nicely by spring in sections where there is abundant rain fall, so that all the spring preparation needed is a good double harrowing.

If the soil has not settled properly by spring and remains so loose that horses sink into it several inches, a pecker or disk set straight and weighted can be used to advantage between the first and second draggings. When needs a firm roof bed with a loose seed bed on top. One farmer describes the condition as that of a circus ring the day after the performance, packed down hard and scuffed up by the hoofs on the surface.

PUT YOUR MARQUIS IN EARLY.

There are occasional years when late-seeded wheat succeeds, but such years are rare. In general, the yield of wheat falls off about a bushel a day per acre for every day's delay after April 21st in the Southern part of the spring wheat territory until May 15th.

Seeding later than that frequently results in total loss. Even in the Northern belt the yield drops rapidly if wheat is sown after May 15th.

In a few cases broadcasting is suitable on wet soil or trashy land where it cannot be drilled to advantage, but there is no doubt that drilling is much the best practice.

If the seed bed is in nice shape, a drill will do a better job and will economize seed, and will put it in the ground two or three inches, which gives it a better chance to form a deep-seated root system.

Four or five pecks of hard spring wheat and five or six pecks of durum wheat drilled in an acre should give a nice stand. Broad casting wastes seed.

LEPER COLONY MOVED.

HOLD MEETING HERE

Leaders From All Over North
Dakota Present at Conference

The meeting held in this city yesterday of the officers and directors of the North Dakota State Good Roads Association was attended by prominent men from all over the state, who are good roads enthusiasts and who have pledged their word to put over a good roads program for the state of North Dakota that will be as good or better than that of any other state in the Union.

Among those present were the following: J. J. Moe, Valley City, N. B. Black, Fargo, J. L. Bell, Bismarck, Will E. Holbein, Bismarck, A. T. Krabel, Chisler, Phil Meyers, Bismarck, Geo. Siderer, Lakota, L. T. Hall, Hastings, L. L. Wolf, Jamestown, F. W. Turner, Dickinson, W. N. Wimmer, Halliday, P. W. Mees, Mandan, E. R. Montgomery, Grand Forks, Harrison Garnett, St. Thomas.

These men are all officers or directors of the North Dakota State Good Roads Association, and compose the Executive Committee of the organization.

Calls Meeting to Order
President J. J. Moe, called the meeting to order and explained the object of the meeting, which provide for a definite program of work for the coming year to the end that a comprehensive and sensible constitutional amendment would be provided for the voters at the June primary in 1922, that would give to North Dakota a trunk system of highways running from county seat to county seat, east and west, north and south, and which would be permanent highways were needed on account of heavy and continual traffic.

An auditing committee composed of Messrs. Phil Meyers, J. L. Bell and F. W. Mees, was appointed to have full charge of the finances of the association, and to provide a system of accounting that would show the expenditure of every cent received from membership to the association.

A legislative committee of three was also appointed, whose duty it is to compile all possible information relative to good constitutional amendments as passed in other states in the Union, and to recommend a constitutional amendment that will be backed by the association at the primary in June 1922.

This committee is composed of Messrs. F. W. Mees, A. T. Krabel and W. N. Wimmer. This committee was given full power to make such investigation as they deemed necessary to the end that the best possible amendment could be framed.

To Start Publication
It was unanimously decided that the association would start the publication of the North Dakota State Good Roads Association, the first issue to be published in April. This magazine will be sent to each member of the association, a portion of each membership being set aside for subscription purposes, but anyone not a member of this association may subscribe for it at $1.00 per year, or they may buy it on the news stand at 10c per copy. This magazine will be published from the Secretary's office and will contain not only reports of the business done by the association but will contain good roads articles from all over the country. It is planned to have it profusely illustrated with scenes of heavy spots about the state of North Dakota with directions of how to get to them. In fact, all matter, both reading matter and advertising will be carefully selected, all of which must pertain to good roads. As there is no other magazine of this kind in this part of the country it is expected that the circulation will be large from the very start.

Will Have Display
It was also decided that the Secretary should prepare a display to be shown at the state fair and at a number of county fairs, also the interstate fair, this summer. This exhibit will show how a real trunk system of highways would appear in the state map, and many demonstrations will be made to show the heavy cost to the people of poor highways as compared with good roads.

All present voiced the opinion that the North Dakota State Good Roads Association was in the good roads game to the finish, and would spare no efforts to provide the proper constitutional amendment for the people to vote upon, and would also conduct a state-wide campaign of education so that all voters would be able to vote intelligently at the proper time.

killed had another side which his friends talk much about.

When Hamon's body lay in its coffin in the convention hall here, two small children pressed toward the casket. The little brother had his little sister by the hand.

One of the attendants stopped them. "What did you want?" he asked. "We wanted to see Mr. Hamon," the brother replied. "Why?" "He bought us our shoes and clothes," the two answered. At the coffin the children stood and sobbed.

The night clerk in the Rando hotel, where Hamon was shot, has been a cripple since boyhood.

Two years ago he was working in an Ardmore restaurant as cashier. Jake Hamon and a party entered the restaurant late one night. When Hamon went to pay the bill he noticed the young man's condition.

He inquired and learned that the youth had suffered from tuberculosis of the bone and that he was making a brave fight to pay his way in the world.

Hamon ordered the cashier to the Mayo hospital in Rochester, Minn., and paid all the bills involved in a long stay and several major operations.

"And he wrote me an encouraging letter every week," the clerk says.

Once a dope-user attacked Hamon, threatening to kill him. Hamon sent the man's wife a check for $500, with instructions that it be used to treat the man.

It is said that he helped 500 young people through school and college.

FARM BUREAU SUGGESTS WAY TO GET HELP

Representatives of Three States
Hold Conference at Wheaton

At a joint conference held at Wheaton, Minn., between representatives from the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, the North Dakota Farm Bureau Federation, and the South Dakota Farm Bureau Federation, the following program was suggested to be submitted to the Executive Committees of the various state organizations as a remedy for the present disorganized methods of handling farm labor problems.

The conference made the following suggestions regarding the help problem: That local help be utilized as far as possible.

When outside sources must be called upon to supply farm help the County Farm Bureaus, through the County Agent, send applications for farm help to the employment agencies with which such County Farm Bureaus desire to do business.

Shall State Number
The application shall state the exact number of men needed and the kind of work to be done, it being agreed that simply stating "general farm work" is not sufficient, in order that the employment agency filling the order may best handle the situation.

That the local Farm Bureau on the 15th day of each month inform the State Farm Bureau Federation of the wages being paid and the supply and demand for farm labor in the County such information to be informed to be obtained from at least ten men there in in each season in addition to above, a weekly report of fluctuations should be made.

That wages offered during rush seasons be stated by the hour rather than by the day.

Rule for Agencies
The conference further recommended that all agencies handling farm labor conform to the following:

That they give to the laborers the information received from the state Farm Bureaus regarding the prevailing wages and the supply and demand for farm labor.

NEW COMPLICATIONS

The financial condition of school districts in the state is becoming worse, according to reports received at the state department of education.

Inability to get money deposited by school treasurers with the bank, exhausting of funds in some, a new ruling as to teacher's salary warrants and the facts that the state apportionment for the quarter has not been made—complicates the situation, it is stated by department officials.

The state apportionment for the quarter, representing income from school lands, etc., amounts to $309,379.37. It was certified the third Monday in February by the state superintendent, as required by law, but has not been paid to the county school superintendents of the state.

It was said at the auditors office that the matter would go before the auditing board next week. The money is deposited in the Bank of North Dakota.

State Apportionment.
The law requires the quarterly apportionment of the state tuition fund, derived from interest and income on school lands and fines, taxes, etc., to be apportioned by the department of education on the third Monday in February. This was done. The next step is for the auditor's office to make out the warrants and send to the county superintendents. This has not been done. It was said at the auditors office that the warrants would go before the state auditing board next week. After the warrants are sent to the county superintendents they call upon the state treasurer to issue checks. The delay of even three weeks at this time is a serious matter for many school districts it is said.

The apportionment by counties for the quarter follows:

While this is one of the first requests for material to come from a foreign country, other governments have studied the Agricultural College service for suggestions for organizing a service of their own. A letter was received yesterday from S. T. Newton, superintendent of the extension service of the Manitoba agricultural and immigration department, asking information on distribution methods. Representatives from this province and Saskatchewan visited the college last year to study distribution to extension workers. Ontario has produced 110 reels for extension workers and supplies them projecting machines as well. County agents report that attendance at their meetings has been increased from 15 to 85. Manitoba has begun raising funds for movie machines for boys and girls club leaders, as they have been found a great aid to club work.

The Vatican at Rome Recommends Nuxated Iron

If you lack BODILY or MENTAL VIGOR; If you are WEAK; NERVOUS or IRRITABLE, TRY NUXATED IRON TODAY.

Nuxated Iron CONTAINS ORGANIC IRON LIKE THE IRON IN YOUR BLOOD AND LIKE THE IRON IN SPINACH, LENTILS AND APPLES.

NUXATED IRON also contains a remarkable product, brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force FOR FEEDING THE LIVES, so that NUXATED IRON might be said to be both a BLOOD and a NERVE FOOD.

THERE ARE 30,000,000,000,000 RED BLOOD CORPUSCLES in your blood and each one must have iron.

Today about one person out of every three is said to suffer more or less from the great devastating weakness brought on by malnutrition or lack of sufficient nourishment which is caused NOT BY LACK OF FOOD but often BY LACK OF SUFFICIENT IRON. This lack of iron in the blood is the cause of us to GET THE STRENGTH OUT OF our food.

IRON IS THE MASTER PRINCIPLE OF THE BLOOD AND BLOOD IS LIFE. Our forefathers ate the hulls of grains and the shells and seeds of vegetables and fruits, rich in iron-containing organic iron, but modern men, in the city, throw all these things away—hence the alarming increase, in recent years, of a disease—iron starvation of the blood with all its attendant ills.

When, as a result of iron starvation, you get up feeling tired in the morning, when you find yourself nervous, irritable and easily upset; when you can no longer do your day's work without being all fagged out at night; when your digestion all goes wrong, or you have pains across the back, shortness of breath, heart palpitation or your face looks pale and drawn, don't attempt to go on to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but consult your family physician and have a little of Nuxated Iron of your blood and a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles or test the iron-power of your blood yourself by adding plenty of spinach, carrots, or other iron-containing fruits and vegetables to your daily food and take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—with them for a while and see how much your condition improves. The vitality of people has surprisingly increased the strength, energy and endurance in a few weeks time by this simple experiment.

Be sure you take organic Nuxated Iron and not metallic iron which people usually take and which is made merely by the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron—an entirely different iron from Nuxated Iron. The fact that you may have taken metallic iron without receiving any benefit does not prove that Nuxated Iron will not help you. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that three grains is estimated to be equivalent to (equivalent to) an organic iron content of 10 grains.

WHAT THE VATICAN SAYS ABOUT NUXATED IRON

"I am happy to inform you that your gift of Nuxated Iron has been accepted with particular gratitude by the Holy Father, who, persuaded by its beneficial effects and AFTER HAVING IT SPECIALLY ANALYZED BY THE DIRECTOR OF THE PHARMACY OF THE VATICAN, formulates the most sincere wishes that your product may become famous and be as appreciated by the public as its value certainly merits."

(J. Tedeschi, Institute of the Secretary of State - Vatican)

"The composition of Nuxated Iron is such that the physiological and therapeutic effects cannot fail to be produced; it is usually the case in the prescription of pharmaceutical products of this kind."

(F. Nuxedo, Director of the Pharmacy of the Vatican)

Be aware of substitutes. Look for the letters NUXATED IRON on the wrapper. Nuxated Iron is made by over 1,000,000 people annually. Perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

DEPUTY PAYS INDIAN'S FINE

Fargo, N. D., March 16.—(Knowning by official trips to the Turtle Mountain Indian reservation of the need of the Chippewas for food and clothing, P. H. Bowler, deputy United States marshal, did not hesitate in going into his pockets and paying a fine of $10 for his aged charge, Mrs. Mary Lettgerass, a Chippewa squaw, 68 years old.

Mrs. Lettgerass was fined $10 in federal court last Thursday after pleading guilty in her native tongue, through Peter MacCallis, chief of the Indian police on the Turtle Mountain Indian reservation, to manufacturing liquor for her own use. She told the court that the amount she manufactured was "a little better than a half gallon."

The court gave her 10 days in which to pay the fine or stand committed until the amount was paid.

Robust and sturdy boys and girls—the result of this wonderful energy-producing food

HERE is a statement by an authority on nutrition that gives the reason why there are millions of Karo users all over the country.

This expert says "Karo is one of the greatest of all energy-producing foods. It brings strength and energy to the boys and girls that need lots of strength and energy for studying and playing and growing."

An important question!
What is Dextrose?

You cannot live long without Dextrose. Most foods you eat—such as bread, starchy vegetables and all forms of sugar—have to be changed into Dextrose before your system can use them as energy foods.

Karo contains a large percentage of dextrose—a completely digested sugar.

So Karo is almost by itself a perfect food. These are scientific facts, supported by the very highest medical and food authorities. Send for the free booklet mentioned below, and read all the facts.

To have lots of energy, strength and endurance use plenty of Karo—on cakes or waffles, or as a delicious spread on bread. Many prefer it for stewing dried fruit and prunes. And it makes perfectly wonderful taffy, fudge and caramels.

FREE A booklet every parent should read. It tells all about the wonderful food value of Karo, explains the meaning of Dextrose and why children thrive on it. Send free with this ad to: Karo, Inc., P. O. Box 100, St. Louis, Mo. Write for it today!

DELEGATES TO D. A. R. MEETING ENTERTAINED

State Organization Holds Second Annual Conference Here

MRS. THORBERG SPEAKS

Tells of the Aims of Organization in the State

By Mrs. J. M. Martin
The opening session of the second annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution of North Dakota was held at the home of Mrs. N. O. Hamstad at 291 4th St. beginning at 5 p. m. Tuesday, March 15.
At 5:30 delegates and other guests were entertained at supper by Mrs. Hamstad who was assisted by Mesdames O. N. Durham and B. K. Skeets and by four young daughters or members of Minishoshe Chapter. Mesdames Marion Staley, Betty Dunham, Margaret Postl and a few other girls. About forty guests were seated in the dining room and library where the dining table was supplemented by small tables, lighted by candles and decorated with spring flowers.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. G. W. Haggart, of Fargo; Mrs. Esther Clark, of Valley City; Mesdames Kate Glaspell, Don Neilring, H. F. Graves, and J. A. Buchanan, of Jamestown; Mesdames John Bowers and L. N. Gary of Mandan; Mrs. Frank McGraw of Garrison; and Mrs. Wimmer of Los Angeles Calif.

At 7:30 Mrs. J. M. Martin State Vice Regent, called the conference to order in the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Geo. M. Young, and the address of welcome was given by Mrs. J. A. Thomsen, Regent of Minishoshe Chapter of this market. Mrs. Thorberg said in part: "It is not only a privilege but a most pleasant duty to welcome you, the visiting Daughters of the American Revolution, for Minishoshe Chapter, to this our second annual conference."

You represent today the highest and truest American citizenship, for are you not the daughters of the bravest of the brave, who more than one hundred and forty years ago, fought for the very principles upon which true citizenship is founded. Liberty? Was it not your ancestors who with no thought of personal gain, left homes and loved ones and braved cruel war, that they might establish a great nation of free men?

We can truthfully say today that the spirit of liberty which was in their hearts and led them to make sacrifice after sacrifice, has not been lost, through these generations and we find in your hearts today the same spirit of liberty, justice, truth, and honor.

I wish to extend to each of you a hearty and loving welcome to our City and Chapter and trust that our work will count for untold good in future years."

Mrs. Katie Glaspell, of Jamestown responded to address in a few well chosen words expressing the appreciation of the visiting delegates for hospitality extended them.

Mrs. Don Neilring of Jamestown here favored the conference with a piano solo, polka-musette-march and responding to a hearty encore with improvisation McDowell.

The report of Mrs. George M. Young State Regent was read by Mrs. D. T. Owens, of Minn. State Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Young's report was optimistic about work done the past year, and the prospect of growth for the coming year. Speaking of the growth of the National Society she said:

"The National Society has never had such a growth in membership as since the war. And to the long list of distinguished members that you will be glad to hear about, the wives of the President and the Vice President of the United States both joining through their local chapters in Ohio and Massachusetts respectively. No President's wife has belonged since Mrs. Benjamin Harrison. Now this is sure to gain an added interest to the Society."

Mrs. Young urged that members in North Dakota work with greater interest during the coming year to build up the work in our state.

She also urged the emphasizing of Americanization.

Mrs. H. H. Steele of Bismarck sang most beautifully a group of songs including "Sing, Smile, Slumber," by Guinod, "Little Mother of Mine and Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Greetings from the three absent chapter regents were read: Mrs. M. A. Hildreth of Fargo, Mrs. John Tracy of Valley City, Mrs. Thos Kane of Grand Forks.

Mrs. Frank McGraw of Garrison, a member of Minishoshe Chapter sang in a most pleasing manner "Sing, sing birds on the wing" by Nutting, responding to an encore with "A Bowl of Roses" by Clarke.

Announcements of tomorrow sessions were made by Mrs. Martin in, after which a quartette composed of Mesdames O'Hare, French, Staley and Martin sang "Morning Invitation" by George A. Vezale.

This was followed by an informal social hour, and the evening session ended with the feeling that the time had been most pleasantly and profitably spent.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

And she carries her son around in a valise.

After Nancy and Nick and Flippety-Flap had brought Squeak, the elephant-baby, back to the circus, Flippety-Flap sat down and squinted thoughtfully at the sole of his enormous shoes (where he wrote all his reminders).

"Mrs. Kangy is gone, too!" said he. "The gnomes let her out of her cage and she took her son, Kicky Kang, along back home—with her."

"Mrs. Kangy?" cried Nancy. "Who is she?"

"The big kangaroo," explained Flippety-Flap. "And she carries her son around in a valise. Handiest thing you ever saw."

"But what if she'd check it some time," said Nick, "and lose the ticket. Daddy did that once."

Flippety-Flap laughed heartily. "Why, bless you, boy, she can't lose either the valise or the ticket. She couldn't check it if she wished to. She carries her valise wadded tight to her tummy. Most convenient, I call it, with a neat draw-string on top. When sonny has a cold and she does not wish him to go out and play, she merely says—

"It's damp out today, my dear, so you stay in the house." Then she ties a double knot in the draw-string and sonny stays in. Or when he's been naughty, it's easy as butter to put him to bed without his supper and tie three knots to make sure of him. But, better still, if sonny's chased and someone threatens to hurt her darling, she chucks him into her valise and jerks it shut, and then says—

"Come on, now, whatever your name is, I'll settle with you. And whatever his name is, that's been attacking sonny, usually howls and turns tail and runs." Mrs. Kangy isn't just talking when she says she'll turn on people. She's the best kicker, too. I'll tell you about that again!"

ENTER, COOLIDGE RED!

It is probable that the Coolidge red will rival the "Harding Blue" in popularity this summer.

The shade some have termed "Coolidge's Carmine" was brought to prominence by the wife of the vice president.

It is to use Mrs. Coolidge's own words, "ox-blood red."

Who may wear the Coolidge red? Mrs. Coolidge has blue eyes and dark hair. And the ox-blood suit is very becoming.

So Washington may be divided into two color camps: those who look their best in Harding blue, and those who are most becomingly powdered in Coolidge red.

NEWEST PARISIAN COIFFURES

These are the modes of Coiffure French women of fashion now are demanding: the hair worn low on the forehead and a knot high on the head, held in place by a fan-shaped comb of light and dark amber, as shown on the left; or a Day-hair, not low on the back of the neck with the hair combed smoothly down, as shown on the right.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

TILLING THE SOIL

Competition for individual prestige and advancement is less keen in agriculture than in other industries.

High wages paid in the city are never supplemented with a statement concerning the liability side of the worker's personal ledger.

The net balance is the only fair way to compare the wage of the city and the agriculture employee.

No activity offers the opportunity for personal development as does agriculture.

The successful farmer is independent, versatile, self-reliant, adaptable; he must be a naturalist and a business man.

Agriculture offers opportunities for the soils expert, the plant doctor, health expert and specialists in pruning, spraying, forestry, farm machinery, recreation and markets.

BETTER POSTAL SERVICE

Postmaster General Will Hays proposes to humanize the mail service.

"The Postoffice Department," Hays declares, "has been run for years, so far as the human element is concerned, on principles that went out of style long ago."

Hays says that he wants the personnel of the Postoffice Department to feel that their services are something more than to be paid for and then forgotten. He says the postoffice business is the biggest business Uncle Sam conducts.

He wants, he says, each man of the 800,000 at work in the department to feel that he is actually a partner in the great enterprise.

He says he hopes to make every man an enthusiastic aid.

In short, he wants to "get close to the people," and to give service through the elimination of archaic and unintelligent methods.

"I want to get everybody interested," he says. "Wake up the service. Make friends all around. Get a big service partnership going. Then what will happen? The mail man instead of chucking a letter on your doorstep, will naturally and willingly and carefully put it in your letter box."

Patrons of the United States postoffice want good postal service. If "the big postmaster" can give it to them—they will be truly grateful, surely.

MOTHERS-IN-LAW

In a cemetery in an Ohio city stands a tombstone on which are inscribed these words:

"Here Lies the Best Mother-in-Law God Ever Made."

The virtue of mothers-in-law have not often thus been celebrated and popular fancy has given credence to the libelous caricatures of mothers-in-law presented in the rude jokes of a generation ago.

But who is it who comes without delay to help out when someone is sick in a fellow's family?

And who volunteers to stay home and watch the children when one wants to go to the theatre?

And who is the only one who cares enough to give help when a fellow's wife is head-over-heels in spring housecleaning?

And who never tires of being helpful, even when she has much to do in her own household?

This wonderfully useful person is none other than mother-in-law. Many men call her "mother"—and what finer tribute can a man give to this woman than to address her as he addresses the woman who gave him birth?

But in all literature, there is only one tribute to a mother-in-law.

It occurs in Scripture where honor is paid to Naomi, the mother-in-law of Ruth.

When they were about to part, Ruth refused to leave Naomi, saying:

"Whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

WITH ONE DOLLAR

Prof. W. A. McKeever of the University of Kansas, in an address, says: "All a young man needs these days to start a matrimonial career is one good American dollar, willing hands and an alert brain."

That's fine! But in his recipe for successful matrimony, he failed right on the start to mention the young woman. There may be young women who are willing to accept Prof. McKeever's statement and a young man so limited, at face value.

There may be some, but they are woefully in the minority.

Anyway, Prof. McKeever's statement has awakened widespread discussion. Marriage of young people is natural. How long should they wait before launching their little cange? How much should the man have besides willing hands and an alert brain?

"One good American dollar" doesn't make a noise like a month's rent, or a week's grocery bill. Theoretically, the professor may be right. Practically, many of his friendly critics assert, he is "talking through his spring bonnet."

That is what some of the girls say, at any rate. But few will blame the girl who accepts the young man who has the American dollar, the willing hands and the alert brain, if he has pluck and a job to which he'll stick, even if he has to mortgage his pay envelope to get his real start. Those fellows always succeed.

Millions of motorists are suffering for the sins of the few.

Lucky the 1920 spender who saved his income tax as he went along.

Why not go a step farther and invite the speaker of the House to set in cabinet meetings?

But that portion of your income paid the government ought to be designated as outgo.

Playgrounds are the remedy for the hazard of children playing in the streets.

Since the latest wine-and-beer ruling of the Department of Justice doctors' prescriptions have shown an increase in popularity.

Having said his say about the "Jane who sues for breach of promise," Billy Sunday may now turn his attention to the man who breaks his promise to "the Jane."

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

GIVE US A REST

It seems that the "Committee of 21" has definitely decided on a recall election in North Dakota. This is a fair start, and if only seventy thousand additional committeemen who are qualified electors back up the decision of the "Committee of 21," the thing will be all over but the voting. In the final analysis, the voting would cut quite a wide swath in the general results, should a recall election be ordered; but the Chronicle doesn't believe that a recall election will be held in North Dakota this year.

In the course of quite a number of years of observation, we have been impressed by the fact that it doesn't take very many political straws to show which way the wind is blowing. And in the present situation the signs point pretty much in one direction: the people of this state want a rest. They are sick of the everlasting agitation, bickering, recrimination, pulling and hauling. They want at least a few moments of peace.

It isn't that the forces opposed to Townleyism are weakened in morale or one whit less opposed to state socialism today than they were five years ago. We do not know of a single business man or farmer who has been converted to Townleyism during the past two years; but we do know of quite a number of former members of the Non-partisan league who have renounced their allegiance to that organization. There is at least an even chance that a recall election would be successful from the L. V. A. standpoint.

That isn't where the shoe pinches. There is a well defined sentiment against a special election on three principal grounds: First, of a revulsion against the annoyance of incessant political warfare; second, of political expediency; third, of doubt that such beneficial results as might be obtained would be worth the cost and effort of getting them.

That the people of this state are surfeited with political warfare—such as has been carried on unremittingly during the past five or six years—is beyond question or doubt. That any political advantage would accrue to the anti-league forces by reason of the recall of certain of the present state officials is at least debatable. On that score it is safe to say that more obstacles and greater difficulties will present themselves than are now apparent to the naked eye. That anything like order could be brought out of present chaotic conditions during the year that would intervene between a recall election held in June of this year and the regular primary election to be held in June next year we do not believe and can see no reason to hope for. And unless such relief had been secured in what position would the anti-league forces find themselves?

In a broad sense, these may be said to be the considerations that give pause to the average citizen who is opposed to Townleyism but who is somewhat reluctant to cut off his nose to spite his face. If the investigations that were carried on by the "smelling" committee of the house and the "whitewashing" committee of the senate had been conducted with any regard for ethics, fair play and judicial regularity, the result might have been different; the atmosphere might have been cleared; the people might have had placed before them the uncolored facts. But such was not the case. Those experts hearings tinctured with bias and prejudice, have resulted in "confusion worse confounded." To make them the basis of a political contest at this time would be folly.

Give the people time to learn the facts and think them over. And in the meantime let the present state administration extricate itself—if it can.—La Moure Chronicle.

ABOUT THIS TIME O' YEAR

With the Movies

"The Greater Claim," a Metro special starring adorable Alice Lake, comes to the Eltinge theater tonight, as the feature attraction.

This story will be welcomed by the thousands who know Alice Lake's splendid achievements. She plays the part of Mary Smith, the Follies beauty, married by young and wealthy "Chuck" Everard. The latter is kidnapped by his late father and shipped to sea, and Mary takes to Broadway's cabaret life, in revenge. Then her child, through strange circumstances, becomes adopted into its grandfather's home, where it proves the means of reconciliation, but only after a shrewd Solomon's choice foils the intrigue of two adventures.

The supporting cast includes Jack Dougherty, Edward Cecil, De Witt Jennings, Florence Gilbert and Lenore Lynard. Wesley Ruggles directed the picture, personally supervised by Bayard Veiller, Director of Productions. Albert Shibly, Le Vain adapted the story of Isola Forester and Mann Page for the screen, and Sidney Ulman designed and executed the art interiors.

ONE METHOD OF BECOMING A MERCHANT PRINCE

There was an old geezer And he had a lot of sense, He started up a business On a dollar 'n' eighty cents. The dollar was for stock And the eighty for an ad, Which brought him three dollars In a day, by dad!

Well, he bought more goods And a little more space, And he played that system With a smile on his face. The customers flocked To his two by four. Soon he had to hustle For a regular store.

Up on the square Where the people pass, He gobbled up a corner That was all plate glass. He fixed up the windows With the best he had And told them all about it In a half page ad.

He soon had 'em coming And he never, never quit, And he wouldn't cut down On his ads one bit. And he kept things humming In the town ever since And everybody calls him The Merchant Prince.

Some say it's luck But that's all bunk— He was doing business When times were punk! People have to purchase, And the geezer was wise— He knew the way to get 'em Was to advertise.

Try This on Husband

Washington, March 16—Anthony Giacofci is the proudest man in Washington. For a dish he cooked has won the praise of President Harding. It is listed on the menu cards as "Noisette of Spring Lamb Rossini." "Noisette" is French for "nut." Rossini was an Italian composer, a favorite of the chef. Spring Lamb is 100 per cent American.

"It is not difficult to prepare," Giacofci said. "A little expensive perhaps, but very, very tasteful." He took a rook of lamb from the ice box. It weighed two pounds.

IT'S AXIOMATIC

that children of any age thrive well on

Scott's Emulsion

It is nourishment abundant in strength-giving and growth-promoting substances. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

"This will serve but two persons—one pound to a person. There is much waste meat to be cut away."

In a jiffy he had trimmed off the outer portions. Then he severed the bones. Only two rounded pieces of the tender lamb remained, each perhaps four inches in diameter and an inch thick.

"Try it in a hot pan, so," he demonstrated. While the meat "nut" was frying, he arranged a tiny nest of head lettuce. Then he inverted a spoonful of pate de foie gras, or goose liver, upon the lettuce. A thick disk of toast, about four inches in diameter, was next prepared.

When the meat was done to the proper turn, he placed it on top of the toast.

A brown sauce containing chopped truffles and shallots was poured over the portion.

"Noisette of Spring Lamb Rossini" was complete.

MARKETING DELEGATES WILL MEET IN FARGO, MARCH 23

The Farmers' Marketing Committee of Seventeen announces that arrangements have been made for holding meetings in the various grain producing states to be attended by representatives of farm organizations in each state interested in the co-operative marketing of grain. These meetings have been called for the purpose of selecting delegates from each state to attend a conference to be held at the LaSalle hotel, Chicago, Illinois, on April 6th, 1921, for the purpose of ratifying "The Plan" for the national marketing of grain co-operatively which was adopted by the Farmers' Marketing Committee of Seventeen at Kansas City, February 17th, 1921. In compliance with the above ruling of the Committee of Seventeen, a meeting will be held at the Gardner hotel at Fargo on March 23rd, at which time J. M. Anderson and C. V. Gregory, both of the committee of Seventeen will attend. It is important that notice of this meeting be given to the various grain organizations of North Dakota that they may have a representative here at Fargo on the 23rd.

AUTHORITY FAVORS FINANCING CORPORATION FOR FARM BUREAU

Bernard M. Baruch, the well known financier who has lately been actively studying co-operative marketing, appeared before the committee of seventeen and advocated licensed warehouses and national grading and a financing corporation to interest the investing public in buying farm notes secured by warehouse receipts. Mr. Baruch said that the farmers needed foreign markets more than credit. With the war over the world has the opportunity to go to work and buy the surplus production of the farms. He agreed that the farmers must control their own credit and was enthusiastic over the idea of a $100,000,000 institution being owned by farmers and manned by experts. In his estimation, no difficulty could be seen to make the entire marketing scheme successful.

ARMOR FOR POLICE

New York Department Considers New Invention

(By Newspaper Enterprise.) New York, March 16.—Police officials here are considering adoption of a plan already in use elsewhere of equipping the police force with armor. Dr. Guy O. Brewster, inventor of the equipment that is being considered, is an experienced armorer. He has been ordered to put his armor suit on the market, he says, he donated a suit of it at Lake Placid, and ordered a machine gunner stationed on the bank to "open up."

BUREAU FIRST TO ENDORSE MARKETING CORPORATION PLAN

The first of the large farm organizations to endorse the plan of the Farmers' Grain-Marketing Committee of Seventeen is the American Farm Bureau Federation. A member of the Committee of Seventeen appeared before the executive committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation, meeting in Chicago February 17-19, and explained in detail the plan. The executive committee thereupon unanimously voted to approve the plan, and directed the president and secretary to forward a message of congratulations to the Committee of Seventeen.

TALKS ON WOOL

C. J. Fawcett, of the wool department of the American Farm Bureau Federation, spoke to the executive committee on the wool question. He stated that the wool would be handled through a national pool. He said

WHEN FOOD DOESN'T DIGEST

Give the Stomach a Rational Rest by Proper Aid, Not by Haphazard Starvation Methods. Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A sour stomach may indicate an acid condition that calls for an alkaline effect. This you will get from one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after a meal. Sour risings, gasiness, a heavy bloated feeling and such distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia are usually only temporary. And yet they may lead to serious disorder. The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals reflects to a high degree the intelligent selection of preventative measures.

One cannot always select or inspect the quality of food to be eaten nor its method or manner of preparation. But it is possible to avoid the acidity that is so often the result. And it is a far better plan to eat without worry over what may happen, than to starve for fear it will happen. Many physicians recommend these tablets for stomach distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

They are sold by all druggists everywhere at 60 cents a box.

even the agitation for a tariff on wool had been instrumental in raising the price. He pointed out the unfair argument used by the manufacturers that the high price of wool meant high suits of clothes. He showed that a dollar added to a suit of clothes meant seven cents more per pound for wool, and that the actual wool in a suit of clothes and the price of it at 40 cents per pound had very little to do with the selling price of a suit. In other words the high price of clothes didn't go to the wool grower at all.

Merchants Elect.

Grand Forks, March 16.—Six directors were elected for three year terms at the annual meeting of the Merchants Credit association, held Thursday evening at the Commercial club.

Three of the directors whose terms expired at this time were re-elected. They were O. O. Noonan, president of the association, W. A. Gohman and J. B. Bacon. Thomas McGee, H. P. Rice and C. A. Newhouse were elected to succeed A. G. Sorlie, G. H. Wilber and Frank Drosky. Mr. Noonan and Mr. Newhouse represent the East Grand Forks merchants on the board. There are 18 members of the board, six being elected each year.

HOLMES OLDEST YOUNG JUDGE

(By Newspaper Enterprise)

Washington, March 16.—Oliver Wendell Holmes, the poet, wrote a 75 on a reunion of his Harvard classmates:

"Has there any old fellow got mixed with the boys?"

"There has, take him out, without making a noise."

Hang the Almanac's cheat and the Catalogue's spite!"

Old Time is a liar! We're twenty tonight!"

But the original Oliver Wendell Holmes had nothing on his son, Oliver Wendell, Jr.

For the son, though at 80 the oldest member of the United States supreme court, is in physical appearance, in mental alertness and in all the characteristics by which age usually is judged, one of the most youthful judges.

As a youngster he was, like Caruso, "full of the pep." After graduating from Harvard in '61 he entered the Union army. In 20 months he was shot three times.

Holmes was placed on the supreme bench by Roosevelt in 1902.

ADMITS LEAGUE ON WRONG TRACK

Fargo, Mar. 15.—Is Heel, formerly of Wilton and one of the prime movers in the organization of the Consumers Stores company and the National League admits that the league is on the wrong track and is considering the marketing plan of the American Farm Federation.

"For better results are to be obtained in the way of producers' co-operation than consumers' co-operation," declares Mr. Heel. "I am a strong believer in the plan of the marketing committee of seventeen."

"We can at most save a few dollars through consumers' co-operation, while we're saving this the gambler and his bankers rob us of thousands of dollars each through their control of the markets. Our big saving through co-operation are to be made through producers' co-operation."

NORLING HAS MARKET LIST

In order to assist his farmers as far as possible in marketing local livestock, seeds, feed and other property, A. L. Norling, County Agricultural Agent of McLean county sent out a questionnaire some time ago to every farmer in the county requesting that they fill out the report blank and return it to his office.

Mr. Norling now has the information as to where you can buy most everything in horses from the top Percheron drivers to shelled pumpkins and from hives up to thrashing rigs in the machinery line. This information is for use of farmers in his county and will in many cases give the farmer a chance to get what he wants right in his own neighborhood.

It is a saving of time and expense when the farmer travels to obtain his

MAJORITY OF IND. PAPERS OPPOSE RECALL

Only One Anti-League Daily Now Supporting Proposed Election

REASONS PRESENTED

Editors See Little to Gain by Political Disturbances Now

The majority of the independent press of the state is apparently opposed to a recall at this time. Eleven papers taken at random by 7 to 4 oppose the recall.

Of the independent daily papers of the state only one, the Grand Forks Herald is now vigorously supporting the proposed election.

Set Forth Reasons
Those papers opposing the recall all set forth that they believe that little can be gained by a recall at this time, suggesting that the league leaders should be compelled to set their house in order or suffer the consequences. Another reason advanced is the disturbance which will be caused by political strife at this time when financial conditions all over the world are stringent and all of the state's resources should be concentrated on constructive work.

Opposes Recall

The Washburn Leader, a powerful independent paper in McLean county says:

"The Leader is opposed to the recall election of which there is at this time much talk. The committee of 21 of the I. V. A. has decided on a recall, but the idea which they are trying to force on the people is not meeting with any great success. Too many who are opposed to the League officials, believe that matters can not be improved by recalling them and electing new officials."

The Ryder News takes exception at Townley's threats to keep business men from signing. It declares:

Attacks "Boycott"

"Business men who are in favor of a recall election and through fear of a patronage boycott refuse to sign the recall petitions—are to be pitied. Coercion is un-American. If for no other reason than to defy to his teeth A. C. Townley who made the threat that grass would grow in front of every business place in every town in the state the proprietors and owners of which support the recall by signing the petitions, the business men should sign the petitions and assert themselves in the election campaign."

THE GRAND FORKS HERALD.
The Herald believes that the principal league officials of the state and several members of the legislature ought to be recalled. It is convinced that in no other way can the credit of the state be re-established and its affairs placed on a satisfactory basis. It recognizes that there are still many voters who do not yet understand what the situation is, but it is confident that that understanding can be reached within a reasonable time, and that when it is reached there will be no question of the success of the recall movement.

Tired of Warfare

THE LA MOURE COUNTY CHRONICLE.—The Chronicle doesn't believe that a recall election will be held in North Dakota this year.

There is a well defined sentiment against a recall election on three principal grounds. First, of a revision against the annoyance of incessant political warfare; second, of political expediency and third of doubt that such beneficial results as might be obtained would be worth the cost and effort of getting them.

That the people of this state are surfeited with political warfare—such as has been carried on unremittingly during the past five or six years—is beyond question or doubt.

THE HETTINGER COUNTY HERALD

—Let's change our tactics before it is too late. Let's put men in office who will act rationally for the good of the state. Let's initiate laws which will regain for North Dakota her coal name among the best states of the union.

Placed at Prospect

THE SHELLE OZONE.—A recall election is a prospect for a good share of the administration, including three of the supreme court justices. At least it is desirable in the cases of the governor, lieutenant governor and attorney general, but there is doubt with many as to its wisdom at this time on several grounds. The result will depend almost wholly on the man who is to oppose Frazier.

THE BRACH ADVANCE. The recall and the initiated laws carry with them grave responsibilities to those who favor this movement. Not only votes will be needed to put them over, but much money. It is plain, therefore, that very men and woman who desire a change in government and the state reinstated in the eyes of the

A job must put his or her shoulder to the wheel and work, or all our efforts will be in vain.

"A Unsatisfactory Way"

THE MANITOWISH MAIL.—The Mail is still of the opinion that the recall is an unsatisfactory way of curing the disease, which for six years has had our state by the throat. It seems like submitting to vaccination when smallpox has just about run its course. A better and more decisive cure would be to allow nature to take its course by allowing the present state administration to wallow around in its own mire until the disease has run itself out. A few months more of chain banking and usurpation of capital rather than income for current expenses would bring the administration up to about the same position as a snake would find itself in when trying to gather a meal by swallowing its own tail. It can't be done, but in this instance it would seem a more permanent lesson to let the Nonpareil league get their complete fill.

THE VALLEY CITY TIMES

ORD. The more people come to realize what a recall election means and what it will cost the more convinced many become that this is not the proper time to pull off a stunt of this kind. The present state administration has gotten itself in bad up to this time with no hope of getting any better and many are of the opinion that if they are left alone and given enough rope they will "hang themselves." The fact of the matter is that they have about come to the end of their rope and the longer they remain in office the worse they will get but a recall election at this time is perhaps ill advised.

Should Be Thorough
THE PIERCE COUNTY TRIBUNE.
—If the independents should be successful in a recall election, wouldn't we be in a very unsavory position, confronted with the necessity of reconstructing the wreck and making it run? But if we should make a failure what then? Better let the blamed thing alone. Just as it lays. It looks innocent enough, but it's loaded.

THE WAHINGTON GLOBE-GAZETTE

—The sooner the recall election is held, the sooner we can begin to set our house in order and find out the worst. The housecleaning should be a thorough one, and should include the governor, lieutenant governor, auditor, attorney general, commissioner of agriculture and labor, some senators and representatives, and three members of the supreme court who apparently whitewashed the scandalous

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound

Every User a Friend

"My little boy had a severe attack of croup and I honestly believe he would have died if it had not been for Foley's Honey and Tar. Two cases relieved him and he went to sleep and was troubled no more."—Mrs. W. H. Thornton, 2323 W. 10th St., Little Rock, Ark.

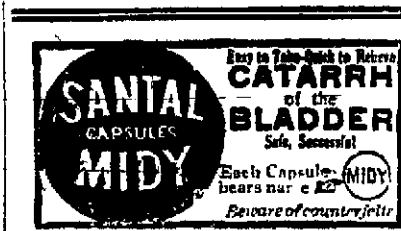

"I am in my eighty-seventh year and I was troubled with a hacking in my throat. I am very glad to tell you that Foley's Honey and Tar has relieved me."—Mrs. J. J. Thornton, 2323 W. 10th St., Little Rock, Ark.

Foley's Honey and Tar is recommended for coughs, colds, hoarseness, tickling of the throat, spasmodic croup, whooping cough, influenza and bronchitis.

Scandinavian American bank about a year ago.

THE MANDAN PIONEER.—Independents, the more they contemplate the wreck, are loth to take hold. That is why the recall is being regarded so warily. They will eventually be compelled to take hold and clean up the mess, but they want a full crew, a legislature with a two-thirds majority to quickly put into force corrective measures and the independents are not at all certain the league voters are ready to throw over their legislators who are tied to the league leaders.
